The editor of an exchange says he knows some people so exceedingly modest that in speaking of a person's leg they persist in calling it a limb; but the young lady who, in speaking of a certain breed of chickens, called them the Brown Limbhorn is, he thinks, entitled to the cake and whole bakery.

On the first of next July the new law in regard to money orders goes into effect. Instead of postal notes the new bill creates a money order system by which orders can be obtained at rates as low as those now charged by express companies. For orders not exceeding $2.50 the charge is three cents, and the fee increases until it is thirty cents for sums over $75 and under $100.

The District Attorney of Mono County returned to Antelope Valley Wednesday. He told parties along the road that the autopsy on the remains of Mrs. Eggleston proved conclusively that Mrs. Eggleston was killed with a claw-hammer. It was understood the woman who has been under suspicion since the crime was committed would be arrested as soon as the District Attorney reached Coleville.—Courier.

Spring and Summer Clothing.

John Henderson, representing Wannamaker & Brown, of Philadelphia, Pa., is at the Arlington House, and will remain a few days, with a great variety of the latest styles of Spring and Summer clothing for gentlemen and boys, and at prices that will suit the times. The public are invited to call and examine samples.

The Paper Tea will be held at the residence of Judge M. A. Murphy on Saturday, March 31st, from 3 to 10 p. m. The evening entertainment will be very attractive. Music and readings by Miss Howe, illustrated with tableaux vivants. Everyone will receive a cordial welcome.

Actor Grismer's Nerve.

Los Angeles, March 21.—Joe Grismer the actor, had an adventure with a centipede at San Bernardino night before last, which was sufficient to unnerve any man, and which threw his wife, Phoebe Davies into hysterics that lasted for over an hour. Neither one of the two has entirely recovered from the shock.

The last place Grismer played in was Phoenix, A. T., jumping from there to San Bernardino. At Phoenix he had left his make-up box open all the evening, closing it hastily after the performance and not reopening it until he reached San Bernardino. He was sitting in his dressing room and his wife was with him, when he commenced to prepare for the play and opened his make up box. He was talking to his wife meanwhile, and with one hand was fumbling in his box.

Suddenly she gave a scream, pointed to his hand and fell over in a dead faint. Grismer looked where she had pointed and was horrified to see a centipede fully three inches long just crawling onto his hand. He expected every minute to feel its sting pierce his flesh, but never moved a muscle. Slowly the venomous creature moved across the actor's hand, while his wife lay as if dead at his feet, and he expected every moment to receive a wound which would inflict agony if not death, but his nerve stood him in good stead and finally the creature left his hand, and then was quickly dispatched with a heavy hairbrush. The poisonous reptile had evidently crept into the make-up box at Phoenix.

"A Railroad Ticket."

The successful farce company, "A Railroad Ticket," which has made such a big hit in San Francisco, is criticised by the Examiner of that city as a rattling irresponsible bubble of fun, full of uproarious impossibilities, will be presented at the Opera House on next Friday evening March 30.

This excellent play has scored the biggest kind of a hit wherever presented and will doubtless continue to do so, for the roster of the company is an excellent one.

Arthur Moulton, James J. Kelly, Harry Powers, James Bevinus, Rose Cheasneau, Jeanette Bageard, Hattie Watters and Annie Caldwell are all clever performers in their respective lines. The play is furnished with perfectly appropriate scenery, all their own, which they carry.

A Solid Family.

The Taggart family of Newburg N. Y., is noted for the number and size of its members. There are eleven children, who range in height from 5 feet 9 inches to 6 feet eleven inches and average in weight from 116 pounds to 275 pounds. Their combined height is 68 feet 3 inches an average of 6 feet 2 1/2 inches; combined weight 2934 pounds, an average of nearly 218 pounds.

Here's Luck.

The APPEAL acknowledges the receipt of cake and wine from the McClaskey-Bowman wedding, and the staff heartily drinks to the health and prosperity of the newly wedded pair.

Charles N. Crittenton, sometimes called the "Millionaire Evangelist" on account of his great wealth, will commence a series of meetings in Odd Fellow's Hall Tuesday evening March 22nd.

He has held meetings in many parts of Europe and Asia, and during the last few years has devoted much time to the Pacific Coast, many thousands having been converted through his influence.

Preparatory services are being held in the Methodist and Presbyterian Churches. A large chorus choir will be organized for the occasion, and a cordial invitation is extended to the people of Carson, Empire, Genoa and other places to assist in these interesting services.

The Weiland Saloon.

W. Whitney has assumed control of the Weiland saloon, which he proposes to run strictly up to the times. He will dispense the best liquors and cigars and fine old Government whiskey, which slides down your throat like oil, tickling your palate meanwhile. Call and see "Handsome Whit."

The young ladies of St. Peter's Church, will give a Paper Tea March 31st.

Ladies or gent's kid gloves cleaned to order by Miss Laura Beckstead.

COAST NEWS.

The Health case does not divulge anything of a new character.

Sheep are suffering from drought on the west side of the San Joaquin.

Both parties claim to have been victorious in the Vallejo municipal election.

Iron guide-posts are to be placed between Yuma and San Diego to protect desert travelers.

M. J. Miller, a solicitor for a San Francisco German paper, committed suicide at Fresno Wednesday.

A prison trusty at Folsom was knocked down and injured by a bull. It is possible that the man will die from his injuries.

Tucson fed 700 of the "Industrial Army" Wednesday. El Paso was somewhat alarmed at the arrival of a detachment and a mass meeting was held, at which the people agreed to feed the men when they went through.

There are four unique mountains in Lower California—two of alum, one of alum and sulphur, and one of pure sulphur. It is estimated that in the four peaks named there are 100,000,000 tons of pure alum, and 1,000,000 tons of pure sulphur.

At Eddy, in the Pecos Valley, N. M., the farmers are cultivating Canaigre, and are getting $10 per ton in its green state for all they can raise. The plant resembles the rhubarb pie plant in leaf and the beet in its root. It is valuable for the tannic acid it carries and is utilized in tanning leather.

Mrs. Belle Joseph, who has been on trial in the District Court at Flagstaff A. T., for shooting her husband January 29th last, for his cruel treatment of her has been acquitted by the jury's verdict that she committed the deed while temporarily insane.

The Alturas Commercial Company's store building and contents at Hailey, Idaho, were burned Tuesday night. The people were much frightened over a rumor that there was powder in the building, and the town was almost depopulated in the eagerness to secure the safety of families.

E. Lahman, who won the heart of Rosa Hunsucker, a woman thirty years of age, and accompanied her from San Francisco to Stockton and abandoned her there, taking her trunk with him, has been convicted of seduction. The jury was out about five minutes. The verdict was against the Judge's instructions.

At Compton, Los Angeles county, Peter Pediques, owner of a band of sheep, and G. Scudde, a herder in the former's employ, became involved in a quarrel over wages Tuesday, and Pediques struck the herder over the head with a club, smashing in his skull. Pediques surrendered himself and made a plea of self-defense.

George Newsom, at Hastings, B. C., owned a pet monkey that he gave every morning whiskey and beer. When the drink was not ready for him the monkey made a terrible to-do until he had his appetite satisfied. Newsom got tired of the animal's antics, and stopped the liquor allowance. This enraged the monkey, and the first time he found himself free he made a vicious attack on Newsom, who, in the struggle, choked the animal to death, but received several wounds before he was the master.
